I hope I dream of all that I've done
When I'm standing at the pearly gates
In the setting sun
I hope I dream of everything I've done

I hope I've lived like I believed
That I never took for granted
All the love you gave to me
I hope I've lived, lived like I believed

I hope I loved in every way
I hope it filled the corners of every single day
I hope I've loved, loved in every way

I want to be all I can be
The good things that you see in me
I never expected it to be easy
When, when it is my time to leave
I hope you'll be there with me
I'll never stop believing

I hope I dream of all that I've done
When I'm standing at the pearly gates
In the setting sun
I hope I dream of everything I've done
I hope I dream of everything I've done
