I'd like to show you my world
For you to see how I feel
And I hope that someday
Oh you understand, yes you understand

To change your point of view
Walk a mile in my shoes
And what will you do when it's over?

So I hope that one day
You'll meet me half way
With simple words we say
Our pain could be gone

I'm waiting... debating
Tryin' ta find a way to get things through to you
So come on won't you understand

I'm waiting... debating
Keep tryin' ta find a way for us both to agree.. yeah
The one thing we can't deny
Is that life has no guarantees

Help me to dry your eyes

With simple words we say
Our pain could be gone

With simple words our pain could be gone
