Exactly here
is where i found you lost again you said "hei...
where have you been"

it seems i'm supposed
to take you away from here to offer you my pearl
and complete your shell

don't be afraid i'm not gonna lie not gonna lie
you can close your eyes...

here in my room
between my arms
there's no danger
you can dream
you can rest
i'm not a stranger
i'll give you protection
my affection, a direction and some peace
no need to wake up and scream
save me

i know you
were hurt before
i'll teach you how to trust how to stop crying a shore

it seems your live
was all about smoke 'n mirrors but someday you'll learn with your own errors

now you can walk without look behind look behind
i'm here
no need to hide...
