With one hand fast against my mouth trying not to let it out cuz I've been caught between a puddle and a cloud there's nothing new that I could say to tell you why I couldn't stay and why I wonder all my life to find the one that got away

if only I could find a place to rest
(I'm running in circles)
If only I could see that dreams were all I ever had
If only I could find a place to rest
(I'm running in circles)
If only I could see that dreams were all I ever had

Without a single place to be I'm dyin' fast and feeling free
I got my plans to live forever in a dream (forever in a dream)

I need to know that I exist
Left to satisfy an itch (I've had for years) I long to write a song the world cannot dismiss
if only I could find a place to rest
(I'm running in circles)
If only I could see that dreams were all I ever had
If only I could find a place to rest
(I'm running in circles)
If only I could see that dreams were all I ever had

You're the sunlight that never comes You're the reason I don't believe You're the reason I'm always on the run away from everything and everyone you're the reason I lie awake a same recurring dream a fever that wouldn't break and I'm sweating in my sleep to hear you say

if only I could find a place to rest
If only I could see that dreams were all I ever had
if only I could find a place to rest

(I'm running in circles)
If only I could see that dreams were all I ever had
If only I could find a place to rest
(I'm running in circles)
If only I could see that dreams were all I ever had If only I could hold your face again
(I'm running in circles)
and never have to sing if only I could change the past

I'm running in circles
