"Room To Move"

I know it seems like I'm a million miles away
Sometimes you feel like you don't even know me
But in this world the pressure's building everyday
I need time to work things out, oh baby

It's not that I, don't love you, oh no
It's just that I, I've got to have
Room to move, that's all I need
That's all I ask for, room to breathe

Room to move, that's all I need
That's all I ask for
Give it to me, room to move
Everybody needs, room to move

Everybody needs some freedom to survive
To shake the chains of responsibility
You can help me make this feeling come alive
When you hold me close, that's when you set me free

You know I'll always love you, oh
'Cause when we touch I get so much
Room to move, that's all I need
That's all I ask for, room to breathe

Room to move, that's all I need
That's all I ask for
Give it to me, room to move
Everybody needs, room to move
Everybody wants, room to move
Everybody needs, room to move

You lose your mind, if you don't take time
Cross that line and your mind explodes
Push too hard and your feelings starve
Emotions overload

Girl you know I'll always love you, oh
When we touch, I get so much
Room to move, that's all I need
That's all I ask for, room to breathe

Room to move, that's all I need
That's all I ask for
Give it to me, room to move

That's all I need
That's all I ask for, room to breathe
Room to move, that's all I need
That's all I ask for
Give it to me, room to move

Everybody needs, room to move
Everybody wants, room to move
Everybody needs, room to move
Everybody wants, room to move

Everybody needs, room to move
Everybody wants, room to move
Everybody needs, room to move
