

The Fire Theft "Chain"

Chain I feel the words falling a rhythm
I see the wind bearing it's decision to never give in Oh I'm amazed, I hear the words from some kind of silence
When the world falls into violence we'll never give in

Chain I see the world falling in a rhythm
I feel the wind bearing it's decision to never give in Oh I'm afraid, I hear the words from some kind of silence
When the world falls into violence they'll never give in

Chained in silence the rhythm of violence
Change all around us, change in everything you see
Chained in silence the rhythm of violence
Change all around us, change in everything you see

I'm amazed, I see the world in revolution Within the darkness a solution we'll never give in

Chained in silence the rhythm of violence
Change all around us, change in everything you see
Chained in silence the rhythm of violence
Change all around us, change in everything you see

Chained in silence the rhythm of violence
Change all around us, change in everything you see
Chained in silence the rhythm of violence
Change all around us, change in everything you see
