When I have your loving arms around me
I know that I will never be free
I'll always be a slave
To the loving you I crave
But baby, baby, baby don't set me free

When I have your loving arms around me
Tears they roll out of my eyes
Cos I know that it's true
I could never stop loving you
No matter, no matter, no matter how hard I try

Hold me, closer to your heart
Devour me
Imprison me with kisses

And don't ever let me go
Not even if I beg you so
I don't want to be apart from you
Girl you know it's true
I'm Chained to loving you

Chained to loving you
