I feel as nervous as a Christian scientist
One with a severed artery across his wrist
Maybe we'll stop the bleeding, but it's sure to infect
Who ever thought breaking hearts was such an easy task?

I know I'm no angel
Hey, I have no answers
Hey, let's drop the discussion
I'm not making excuses
Hey, there's nothing to say
Hey, let's drop the discussion
Last time I'll ever fall in love again

Time to step up to the batter's plate
I heard the pitcher is going to through a curve
I never meant to hit the ball into your chest
I feel bad. I let my man steal home

I should have never let these lies unfold

Hey, I have no answers
Hey, let's drop the discussion
Hey, there's nothing to say
Hey, let's drop the discussion
