Out of all, all, all you say and do
Gonna be somebody, always, always watching you
But Jesus, Jesus is my keeper
Ain't no friend, no friend I can find

Through all my sorrow, through all, all my pain and woe
Bail my blood, bail my blood and
Blood and my goal
'Coz one day, God is gonna mend
He gonna put together this old broken heart of mine

How much He, Jesus
Mother, Mother used to kneel and pray
But through all the tears
These are the words I can hear my mother say
Said, one day God is gonna mend
This broken, this broken heart of mine
