"Culture Vulture"

Do you suffer for your art?
Cut off your head to spite your heart
Wheres your sense of irony?
If its a blast for you
Its a blasphemy (x2)

Cause you deal in chaos
and you deal in culture
Youre one-half salesman
and youre one-half vulture

Yeah, you got that act all down
Youre so fucking down

Wheres your soul in all that din?
A sense of historys not a sin
Is this where you want to be?
Just marketing your misery
Is this where you want to be? (not me)

Ill be bloodying your knuckles
Pulling out your tongue
Think youre going to hit it
You aint going to hit it (x2)
