

Ira Scott Levin

"How Can I Steal You Away?"

Visit "How Can I Steal You Away?" on MotoLyrics.com

The children call you Sky, but I know you are shy

With the mortal men who find you strange.

But I have tasted the sweetness of your kiss

And I am suspended in a state of bliss.

Chorus:

I can tell by your ring that you must have a thing for the Faerie king.

How can I steal you away?

How can I steal you to -the New Jerusalem?

Through the glass youve stained,

The Faerie king reigns .

Childhood hides within your eyes.

Though your grove is well guarded,

Your smile is sweet.

And with the wings of angels, He gives me strength to compete,

With the Faerie king.

Chorus.

We live in states that touch,

I love you very much.

Visit Ira Scott Levin page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

