Watching, waiting
Playing, who's who
Don't play to win
To be second to you

The door will open
When I suffer enough
Who'll hold this hand
When the going gets rough?

Such good intentions
Always nipped in the bud
What do you expect?
Well, you never could
If I stop laughing
Just to be at your door, oh

Always opinions
Turning you round
Always opinions
Turning you down

I don't play chess
But I could play with you
Not much impressed
Not who do you do
I saw it coming
You saw it his way

Always opinions
Turning you round
Always opinions
Turning you down

Never decisions, oh
Letting me know
Always conditions
Turning you round

I want you to draw the line
Why can't you
Make up your mind?

I know about you
But what about me? Yeah

Excuses all the time
Blew away with 'High insight'
No more good advice
So what about me? Yeah
I'm playing who's who, ooh, ooh

Who would have thought
This would turn into fact
The door's wide open
You've lost your act
I saw it coming
You saw in his way

Always opinions
Turning you round
Always opinions
Turning you down

Never decisions, oh
Letting me know
Turning you round

So now you've taken over
I'm playing who's who
