"Thought I Could Fly"

Like daylight drains the sun
I break like a gun
We both lie as one
And ships wreck on the sand
Broken the man
Her head in his hands

In my dream I'm falling
Wake me before I die
I thought I could fly

She comes long with me
Breaking 'till free
Awakening
At once feel the collapse
We both relax
Our bodies breathe

In my dream I'm falling
Wake me before I die
I thought I could fly

She warms inside
Softens my breathe
Tightens my eyes
Thought I Could Fly
We reshaped into
Pieces unglued
Thought I could fly

In my dream I'm falling
Wake me when I die
Empty for a moment
Yet complete at the same time
I thought I could fly
