This bridge will burn all night
And no one's got a clue why
You pit your truths and lies
It's these things I truly despise
We can't afford to lose our minds
No more living life down at the end
Just smile and wave goodbye my friend
It's the last glance before I turn my head
Wave goodbye my friend

Fall into it
I've naive to say that you have found yourself in better days
The bitter end, it ends today
I've tried to run before, but I never quite escaped
Let's torch the place some more
This while thing's an outrage
We can't afford to lose our minds
No more living life down at the end
Just smile and wave goodbye my friend
It's the last laugh before I turn my head

Wave goodbye my friend
Dive into it
