This song is just about a girl whose sweetheart went away,
And every day at twilight, we hear her heart say
Evening star, no matter where you are,
Oh please come out and help me find my man

(Oh mister)
Evening star, please send your light afar
And tell him that I want him if you can

He's been away so long I almost doubt him
My life is just an empty shell without him

Oh evening star, no matter where you are Shine out and help me find my man
(oh won't you)
Help me find my man.
