I am, I'm pitching to myself at bat
Always patting myself on the back

Tell me I have it easy, I'll tell you it's not true Am I destined to live out a life, with no one to help me through?
Tell me I have it easy and I'll tell you it's not true
For you've never felt as alone as I do

Sometime I often long for someone To share with an evening's setting sun

Tell me I have it easy, I'll tell you it's not true
Am I destined to live out a life, with no one to help me
through?
Tell me I have it easy and I'll tell you it's not true
For you've never felt as alone as I do

Tell me I have it easy, I'll tell you it's not true Am I'm destined to live out a life, with no one to help me through [Incomprehensible] tell me I have it easy and I'll tell you it's not true
For you've never felt as alone as I do, as I do, as I do
