Lately you've been feeling like a waste
And I know that it's so hard
Cigarettes and beer are all you taste
You try to quit, but it's so hard
And I want to help you out
'Cause I'll always be there
You think you're some embarrassment
That I shouldn't bear
I don't know who you are
You yell at the TV. It won't talk back Loneliness can be so hard
Your life's a massive mess.
You're off the track
I want to help, but it's so hard
When you take advantage of the fact
That I really care
And keep throwing burdens on me That I shouldn't bear
I don't know who you are...I don't know who you are You try to drink away the pain but it's madness that you gain
And when I help you out...you dog me out
And you take advantage of the fact that I really care you keep throwing burdens on me that I shouldn't bear
I don't know who you are
