When will you make the end
To all this shit
When will you say that
We could be just friends
When will all this end

Your face
It makes me so ill
'Cause I know what you're
Thinking about me
Your smile
It makes me feel so down
'Cause I know that you're Still in love with me

When will you realize that
All of it is over
Totally over
And when will you understand
That this must be finished

I know that
You know that..
But you don't wanna
Recognize that
You know, you're hurting me
More and more

Please
Stop trying
Please
Forget our past

When will you realize that
All of it is over
Totally over
And when will you understand
That this must be finished
Now

This must be finished now..

This must be finished now..
