i walk the streets at night and stumbled 'cross two friends of mine i see their faces stained by in the coffee grinds black liiiiifeeee cant i now defy you
in this black life
black knife stabs me in the back i reaaalizeeee
i sense their coming to me everyday most all the time i feel the predator he knows my name by now allright god knows i've taken all that I can stomach up to now but from the corner of my eye i dream about i want a blueeeee liiiiife basking in the light

i want a blue skyyyyyyyy oh not a cloud in sight
want a blueee liiiiife
no need for me to hide
from this black liiiiiiiight
do you hear me noooooow (gotta turn around)
i still I stand here unemployed and overqualified keeper of the king the strychnine in the troughs tonight black life cant i now defy yooou in this black life
i reaaalizeee
i sense their coming to me everyday most all the time
god knows i've taken all tat I can stomach up to now but from the corner of my eye i dream about
i want a blueeeee lifeeeeee
i want a blueue skyyyyyyyy
do you hear me nooow
i want a blueeeee liiiiiiiife
