"Lonely Lullaby"

have I mistaken
have I misjudged
has it all snowballed
how far has this gone
the further I let it
the harder the fall
is it me who dropped it or was I the ball

chorus:
it's my, it's my
it's my lonely lullaby
it's my, it's my
it's my lonely lullaby

am I suspicious
though I don't have to trust is this a problem I got or is it just between us later comes the consequence for now I'll have some fun it's only a matter of time then everything can be outrun

(chorus)

I wake up in the morning what more will I see
perhaps some more thoughts and some new ideas
I want to be healthy
I want it for real cause some how I feel guilty for all that I feel

(chorus x3)
