Don't go
No not tonight
Your radiance has chained me to your wrist so tight
Your breath is the air I breathe
Your eyes erase all my history
Till all there is, is now
And all I see is you
There's nothing left to do
But never let you go
Don't go
You have my heart
And there is no beating sigh when we're apart
We've come so far with no regrets
And each step that I've come with you
Till are there is, is now
And all I see is you
But never let you go
Don't go
Don't go
