"Good Goodnight"

It's a good goodnight, for a real
Good time

I got a pocket full of Reasons why I need you by my Side

In moonlit skys, we'll
Float like this forever

We've all
Been bit by the birds and we've
All been stung by the bees

You
Tell me, where in the world is Heaven?

And where on earth is Love?

Is it in your smiling eyes
Or your goodnight kiss?

It isn't
Healthy to miss you as much as
This

It's a good goodnight, for
A real good time

I got a pocket
Full of reasons why I need you by
My side

And we'll be gone, into
The clouds and out of our Minds

We'll watch the people and
Buildings and world getting
Smaller with time

They could be
Calling me a killer, or pain me as
A saint

But it wouldn't matter a
Minute, because the moment I'm in
It

And time stands still, around
Here

It's a good goodnight, for
A real good time

I got a pocket
Full of reasons why I need you by

And if we return to our
Minds

We'll recollect what we Learned on this magic carpet ride
My side
