You walk in the room with your hair pulled back
You got the attention just like you wanted,
They turned their heads did you feel it?
You look so pretty, yeah you look so happy
How in the hell could you not like glory?
Them boys are waiting in line,
Yeah they're wishing to see but not wishing to be
Who you really are

Goodbye, this time it is for real
Let down and broken now you feel,
Messed up cause you know by now it's over,
You know by now it's over

You're not even half of what I expected you'd be You're weak when the night comes,
And there's no place you can hide
And I thought for long, it'd be worth it in the end
But I guess I was wrong, I never felt so alone
So maybe someday if I see you around,
You'll bite your tongue and be loss for words
'Cause baby, that's a secret I can't keep

Goodbye, this time it is for real
Let down and broken now you feel,
Messed up cause you know by now it's over,
You know by now it's over

Oh oh, oh no, yeah you know by now it's over
