Dreamer

In the clouds you're always walking
You don't hear me when I'm talking
You're a million miles away, dear

Dreamer

In whose arms are you romancing?
While the two of us are dancing
It's not me you're holding near

Though you're lost in the splendor
Of a moment divine
In the end you'll surrender
Your lips to mine

Dreamer

In your dreams you never hold me
But my dreamer's heart has told me
That you'll wake up in my arms

I'm just a dreamer

In your dreams you never hold me
But my dreamer's heart has told me
That you'll wake up in my arms
