Say you will
Do whatever I want you too
Say you will
Go wherever I go
'Cause love won't kill
Anybody who touches it
So say all right
Kiss me goodnight
And say you won't let me go

Maybe I will
If you talk real pretty
Maybe I will
But I don't know
You can stay until
Either one of us gives up
And then all right
You can kiss me good night
But say you won't let me go

Then one day
When you don't expect it
Your feet can't find the ground
Well it might be love
And maybe it can help you down
Help you down

Now any day
When you don't expect it
Your head goes 'round and 'round
It's a brand new love
And maybe I can help you down
Help you down

Say you will
Talk real pretty
Say you will
Take it real slow
Stay until
Either one of us gives up
And then all right

You can stay all night
And say you won't let me go

Aw honey, say you will
Do whatever I ask you to
And say you will
Go wherever I go
Love won't kill
Anybody who touches it
So say all right
You can hold me tight
And say you'll never let me go
