You feel inside that you've always had your place
You are the one who'd think you'd never fall from grace

Fight! Til the end of the night
That's what you do and say as if there was a problem with me.
(there is no problem with me, No problem)

Now, I see
All, the things you wont believe

Why is it so? that I don't belong
Can't get redemption of the things I've done
All remorse and no advice
Nothing will save me, while in this fucking world

You can achieve that no other can achieve
But in another you never will believe

I can't be, what you're asking me

Why is it so? that I don't belong
Can't get redemption of the things I've done
All remorse and no advice
Nothing will save me, while in this fucking world

Why is it so? that I don't belong
Can't get redemption of the things I've done
All remorse and no advice
Nothing will save me, while in this fucking world

Why all these lies of peace and humanity
They carved a deep hole
my soul is misery
I give up a shadow is missing
May the angel-choir grant me redemption
