(spoken)

hear you now a story of good and evil for evil flourished everywhere but one hope though don't bother calling for help, it will just cut short our conversation aloha
once upon one time it's all going to be locked away

(Circus)

are you a visionairie with the premonition that tempts the dimension of fate were on a path if you seek self transformation look no farther shape shift if you hide in your questions you can suffer from superstition paranoia it's attack on fiction and I predict through tension is a gift eat Halloween candy or do some speed if you want to rock with me killing liquor can prevent cavities you can sit perch proud on your porch anticipating the day with the bible and the loaded exit and that's what you get Provachi sat and fasted for forty five days I ate fast food and sat on the block for six if you like to be complete seek the truth proof enough that they compute is stolen in the roof in addition symbolism lyrical illustration avoid repetition demonstrated opportunities divided equally equals sacred geometry endless of reality is what you make of it and if we change your consciousness we can change the way the whole drama unfolds and everything is unfolding exactly as it should but what we make it better yet be thankful for receiving such difficult opportunities some complain they're bored cus they've had it too easy we've all made mistakes we've all said things that we really don't mean simple things are so down that they can only go up your body is life

the power of nature the nature of power the flower of life let us think of the tree as it grows and flowers and fruits and fall to the ground and in each one is found one thousand seeds in the image of a tree one's spirit can move through all living things and everything is evolving just as it should much in the way stars serious age musical flame it's the same identical to DNA it is the shape that generates governs the law of physics isn't it fractals spiral nebula evolutional by ratio cut and paste mixing musical pieces of human misery can we save the planet by mixing chemistry socially alchemy is today's technology atoms combine to form molecules recombine turning lead into gold or water into wine in my previous life I was a cholo made in Japan china man eskimo polko
albino Australian aborigine pigmy yankee honky on the other hand you may not be so lucky duck season is the reason nonbelievers guilty of treason as long as we remain lame history fails to repeat reincarnation will you make the same mistakes twice are we doing time for a mistake we had made in some other life time

(Radio Inactive)

when the mind has the opportunity it often decides in flaw and encourages you to operate out of your feeling center for you have the same capacity and activity independence lining as you do in your brain cells what does it mean to be elaborate cards the living labyrinth doorways in the body is your genitals attendant to the tentacle running out of you is a stowaway serving as an opening into the records of time creatures on earth insects lizards plants and any mals to illuminate one another and bring themselves to a hyper state of awareness a new harmony without computers and without mechanical and no mechanic can be fix themselves fix your eyes on that which can not be seen please understand there is little difference between a memory interactual live experience and a dream we are your team imagination is the coach we are always winning hope is the winning shot but the shot clock is running out hyperventilating people running in circles with no particular destination to stay physical fit so they can physically fit into the economical coffin of the opposite orientation of the earthly package deals sonash beginning begin beginning the table is smashed hit of the inning into the dugout leaving Yohammed like dig dug the pink slug under your welcome mat is a note that your coming into the door of the geometric elementary school principal's janitor's basement hiding place (my brother I'm telling you)

upon hearing this you may be awakened feel free to add on, collaborate you're important beneath the earth's crust is the dusted human life scrolls into the past sphinx climb to the peak of the mountain top as an elder in the cave he gave you yet another missing puzzle piece jump inside the picture frame frang ball me??? behind alternative dreams so you can see who'd love to see you fall behind door number two who'd turn red to see you blue behind door one is you which proves the real enemy is the envy eaten by jealousy you're killing me and everyone I know-o-o is killing you the seasons come from me and this was past on to me as a gift to you pass on to others don't be surprised if what you once thought to be important is no longer come with doubt you will be given every reason to be doubtful come with love more love will be shown more then ever know-o-own are we scared of being afraid are we prepared to walk through skin that's another dimension of the complex simpleton skeleton crew must we spell it out to you break it down to the anatomy muscles like more puzzles it came from the heart electricity pumps through the arteries up to your brain back to where it first came cave or lake???

emcees are in pain but you got smarter today shape it like clay but you waste the day although I reside in these times of trial do we decide wrong or right or left or how much time is your karma being collecting can collide blindsided you met up with the spectrum of inspection with the sickle hour glass in hand sand slips through but how it erase remain on the beach of each planet buckling oddly enough can I preach please teach me something emcees are in pain due to the arrival of their wisdom teeth death is inevitable time waits for noone for noone times waits patiently painstakingly scuffling away doing your duty is realization of your existence it is important to know what you are thinking learn to live in harmony sovereignty unjealous unsuspecting understand respect through truth trust love joy peace of mind plant free society is utopia even in the realistic possibility you will become increasingly aware of the power of your thoughts and how they're utterly creating your own reality

when the sun splits in two the rate of skin cancer will be rise there are those who say don't look at the sun it will burn out your eyes chuck, noone made a mistake when they put the sun in the sky we tell you all it changed in your eye structure there will be a mutation in the optic nerve architecture that will allow a new type of vision and the likes of which have been holding you in the 3rd dimension marked with a new invention scared of revolution read the book of revelations holes in the ozone irritated and empty the tremendous speed of the process of evolution when you encounter a cosmic celestial vision in your future you were already been exposed to preperational energy earth in the mix at the frequency of 7.8 Hertz when the bodies step on vibrate at the same rate there will be incredible psychic opening in awareness since birth and unity vegetation can be grown around meditation is that not blind communication with nature dolphins do not keep secrets from one another they willingly share the assimilation of knowledge with each other no one will suffer you can tell the evolution of individuals by how willing they are to share what they know if you know who are interviewed in the shopping malls of the recto crona lot gwana where wanna culture knows??? of who you are take a walk in the woods in the fields in the ocean you will see other life forms around you that are much more aware

the era of ignorance is ending you are coming era for slow knowing we struck a fuse write the seasons down let me substitute your mind on another level there is a language being spoken and being recorded by your mind like a crop circle of spiral time??? landing expanding your mind you find the evening and the earthly born it's a year tree ebb on to the future in the present past reckless recollection of what's to come
