Doesn't really matter
How you do it
Little darling
There ain't nothing to it

All you really
Need to do is do it
Spend the night in love

You could spend
The morning hesitating
Every afternoon negotiating

Oh, my little darling
While you're waiting
Spend the night in love

Love in motion
There's no turning back
The wheels are moving
And they're on the track

See through your window
A soft, burning light
Move out tomorrow
But it's all mine tonight

Doesn't really matter
How you do it
Little darling
There ain't nothing to it

All you really
Need to do is do it
Spend the night in love

We could pass
The time in conversation
Fantasy and sweet anticipation
If you like a little variation
Spend the night in love

Love in motion
There's no turning back
The wheels are moving
And they're on the track

See through your window
A soft, burning light
Move out tomorrow
But it's all mine tonight

Spend the night in love
Spend the night in love...

Little darling
There ain't nothing to it
All you really
Need to do is do it

Spend the night in love
Spend the night
