Haa haa
Ohh yea yea
Haa haa
Haa haa
Baby baby baby

Changed all my plans, look what you've done
My house is small and there's only room for one
I know this game, darling, I don't want to play
Why can't I just walk away?
Who's got the time, I need my space
Maybe someday in another time and place
Just turn around, I don't need this, not right now
But I'm falling anyhow

How does it feel? And it feels so fine
How do you know? Feel something deep down inside
What do you see? I see the light in his eyes
And I know what I know
I know it's clear
Nobody's got to tell me so

How does it feel? And it feels so fine
How do you know? Feel something deep down inside
What do you see? I see the light in his eyes
And I know what I know
I know it's clear
Nobody's got to tell me so

See your hearts never lie, the truth is in a site
I look in his eyes and I'm on fire
Logic prevail
I don't believe in fairy tales
Lately I find, I'm waiting by the phone
And I don't want to be alone
Feelings won't fade
But I'm falling deeper everyday

How does it feel? And it feels so fine
How do you know? Feel something deep down inside
What do you see? I see the light in his eyes
And I know what I know

I know it's clear
Nobody's got to tell me so

How does it feel? And it feels so fine
How do you know? Feel something deep down inside
What do you see? I see the light in his eyes
And I know what I know
I know it's clear
Nobody's got to tell me so

Ain't nobody got to tell me so
I know what I know
Ain't nobody got to let me so
I give up, I give in Touch your body, taste your skin
The answer is the same again and again

How does it feel? And it feels so fine
How do you know? Feel something deep down inside
What do you see? I see the light in his eyes
And I know what I know
I know it's clear

How does it feel? And it feels so fine
How do you know? Feel something deep down inside
What do you see? I see the light in his eyes
And I know what I know
I know it's clear

How does it feel? And it feels so fine
How do you know? Feel something deep down inside
What do you see? I see the light in his eyes
And I know what I know
I know it's clear
Nobody's got to tell me so
