I look back on all those good times
We once shared and I must have been blind
Just to think, I find someone new
One who loved me better than you

Well, it may come as a surprise
Loneliness has opened my eyes
I've tried every road I could find
Still I can't get you out of my mind

'Cause there's no one in the world to hold me
No one in the world is gonna move me
No one in the world can love me, like you do, baby
Every time I'm with someone and Loving you, yes I wanna run
I wanna run back to your arms again
There no one in the world
(No one in the world)
Loves me like you do

Are you happy now with your life?
Well, believe I'm breaking inside
For something sure that I could not see
I had it all when you were with me, baby

No one in the world is gonna hold me

No one in the world can move me
No one in the world can love me, like you do, baby
Every time I'm with someone
Loving you and I wanna run
I wanna run back to your arms again
There no one in the world
(No one in the world)
Loves me like you do

Please take me back
(Please take me back)
Oh baby, can't go on
(I can't go on)
I'm not happy in my life without you
I'll do whatever it takes

I've got to get you back with me, yeah
(Back with me, back with me, yeah)
I realize, I need you here in my life

No one in the world
No one in the world
No one loves me like you
No one ready to love, like you do, baby
Every time, you got the love and I need it
Everybody found here the love, need
Oh, no one in the world
(No one in the world)
In this world
In this world
(No one in the world)
