Falling. Leaving my plague behind.
Cannot live this futile lie.
Resurrected. Immune to your poison.
The world that I see [has] lost its creed [where] sin speaks through the wicked hell repossessed by those who burn with the guilt of being born.

Trapped ! Trapped in this downward spiral. A vicious circle of lies Fuelled with revenge. Now I'm repossessing what's mine Another beating, can't move at all With sweet forgiveness you'll take the toll. Rise! Fight back! It's all within the mind. Trapped ! Trapped in this downward spiral. A vicious circle of lies. Laugh at your foe. Now I'm repossessing what's mine.
Thrust the blade. Into this corroded world. Laugh at your foe. While you set his spirit free.

Pain! Guilt! Hatred!
Revelations of a dying world. Raise your fists in anger. Fight back !
Elevate in the hierarchy. Reserve the line of command.

I've been burnt by the fire within Fallen. Left my plague behind. Won't succumb to the futile lies.
Resurrected. I will not give in.
Trapped ! Trapped in this downward spiral. A vicious circle of lies. Hell repossessed. I've been burnt by the fires within. Escaping this downward spiral. Free to breath again. Only to return once more.
