Traces
All the shadows of what was
We crawled through defeat
Until it consumes you
Until we were empty
And nothing but hatred remains

Your holiness displayed
Ashen and hollow

To tear you apart
Piece by piece
Unfolding

Losing all
Through you it flows in abundance
You will carry this treachery 'til it breaks you
Until you could see it clearly
we live like ghosts

Your weakness on display
Hollow

To tear you apart
Piece by piece
Unfolding

Lesser than god
Snake
Goat
Harlot

To tear you apart
Piece by piece
Unfolding

You say this is the path less travelled,
Well, how come there's no room to breathe?
