I'm sick. I can see it now, clear as daylight
So fucking what ? Keep your opinions and leave me out Paint it red burn the bitch - Let her serve herself
The pain is real, it's all true I was there

Going insane's overrated
I was right all along You're all the monsters - I am the normal one So here I am and yes I'm fine fucking fabulous alright (Somehow) I'll make it out alive, no matter how...

The medication knocks the edge right off and every
step away
From feeling this is beauty in its own right
The sidetracks and your skilled manipulation of my senses
Left me down - but I've been down before...

Pigs are a noble creature compared to scum like you,
But I'm certain there's one way out there left to chew

The medication knocks the edge right off and every
step away
From feeling this is beauty in its own right
The sidetracks and your skilled manipulation of my
senses
Left me down - but I've been down before...

Ain't nothing you could say Ain't nothing you could do Ain't nothing there at all for you Suppose I could make you see - Would it make a change?
Well, come inside and burn

The medication knocks the edge right off and every
step away
From feeling this is beauty in its own right
The sidetracks and your skilled manipulation of my
senses
Left me down - but I've been down before...
