How's your legs
Do you use them to walk
On over me.

How's your head, my love
Does it rise and fall
Into...

Smoke and pills and wine
Are waiting here for you
My junky valentine.

How's your hands
Do you use them to hold
Or thread the needle

How's your arm my love
Do you use them
To show me a way

Destruction is by design
I'm waiting here for you
My junky valentine.

And I give to you this note
So circle "yes" or "no"
Yes or no

Destruction is by design
I'm waiting here for you
