Mercy
I'm waiting for the sun to shine
Mercy
I'm waiting for the sun to shine
Standing here against the night
But there's beauty upon our sight
If it don't kill you it'll hurt you some
If it don't kill you it'll hurt you some
Mercy build and mercy break
Yours to give and yours to take
And when the world tries to call you away
You say
Mercy
I'm waiting for the sun to shine
Mercy
I'm waiting for the sun to shine
And all this cathedral that you have in your eyes
Is violent revealing from the ground to the sky
Is it warm or is it cold
Is it young or is it old
And if you can't touch the naked body of her soul
She will fall asleep on you
The world will tell you what to do
Till the hands and guns and hearts and songs
They say mercy
Mercy
I'm waiting for the sun to shine
Mercy
I'm waiting for the sun to shine
Mercy
I'm waiting for the sun to shine
Mercy
I'm waiting for the sun to shine
To shine.
