Magazines and movie screens
Still in her mind she's seventeen
Now her life has turned into make believe

Her social status lingers
She's slipping through my fingers
And It's too late
I can't change her mind

She tried celebrity life
Drugs and bottles and super models
She fell out, It's just so easy
Alcohol drains her completely
Just one thing that you'll never wanna miss
She'll do anything to get famous
(To get famous)

And she lives a lie in photographs
Just smiles to forget the past
But on the inside she's still torn apart

And she promises she's different
But it just gets into her head
And It's too late
I can't change her mind
(Not this time)

She tried celebrity life
Drugs and bottles and super models
She fell out, It's just so easy
Alcohol drains her completely
Just one thing that you'll never wanna miss
She'll do anything to get famous
(To get famous)

Fast asleep and in her dreams
She's faking it, just what she's feeling
The lights are on, the clothes come off
She's sitting tight, the party's over

Fast asleep and in her dreams
She's faking it, just what she's feeling

She tried celebrity life
Drugs and bottles and super models
She fell out, It's just so easy
(Just so easy)

She tried celebrity life
Drugs and bottles and super models
She fell out, It's just so easy
Alcohol drains her completely
Just one thing that you'll never wanna miss
She'll do anything to get famous
(To get famous)

She tried celebrity life
Drugs and bottles and super models
She fell out, It's just so easy
She'll do anything to get famous
(To get famous)
