Calm down

Pull yourself together

It'll be alright

Regret is so completely useless

But I can't go back

But if she wanted me to stay

How could I go?

I should have known it was the first time

Give it give it back

But you take

This out on me

I can't believe this was the first time

I wonder how she will remember me

As time goes by

Was it just how she was imagining?

If I called tonight

Would she tell me why

But if she wanted me to stay

How could I go?

I should have known it was the first time

Give it give it back

You take it out on me

I could believe it was the first time

Did it mean everything?

'Cause I can feel the tears fall to the ground

Would it be like the first time?

But if she wanted me to stay

Give it give it back

What you take

This all on me

I can't believe this is the first time

I can't believe it was the first time
