I NEVER MENTION YOUR NAME

Jack Leonard

I never mention your name, oh, no!
I never dream of your eyes,
I never go where we used to go
To hear the echo of your sighs.
I never mention your name, oh, no!
I never ache for your kiss,
I never turn all the lights down low
To let the shadows reminisce.

I never wait by the fire
Expecting you to call by ten,
I never feel the slightest desire
To hold you when it's night again

I never mention your name, oh, no!
I never know you're away,
Except for ev'ry minute
Of ev'ry hour of ev'ry night and day
