There are some people of today
Who are trying to cut me off
But through the powers of the most high God
I'm not gonna fall
Yes, it's through the powers of the most high God
I'm not gonna fall

Why they think they are smart
They would like to break my heart
But through the powers of the most high God
They are gonna fall
Yes, it's through the weakness of the wicked heart
They are gonna fall, tell them

There are some who carry news
Because they would like a drink of booze
But through the powers of the most high God
They are gonna fall
Yes, it's through the weakness of the wicked heart
They are gonna fall

Though you see them laugh with you
Beware of what they do
Because through the weakness of the wicked heart
They're trying to cut you off
Yes, it's through the grudgeful of the grudgeful heart
They're trying to cut you off, yes
