Waiting
Looking over my shoulder
I can feel it like a lick of ice
Tryin' to put me under as I close my eyes

I'm taken back home
Like a dream
Where I lost myself and
Only found more waiting
Waiting

Tell me, tell me everything
Don't hide, don't hide anything
There's always a reason for you to wait

Breathing seems harder, harder to do
It should come with ease
Seems harder, harder, harder
To stop falling
I can't see what I'm supposed to do
If it's wrong or right
Should I feel what's taking me?

Taking me home
Like a dream
Where I lost myself and
Waiting

Tell me, tell me everything
Don't hide, don't hide anything
There's always a reason for you wait
