hmmm my lips hurt

chorus: tie me up tie me down make me moan real loud

take off my clothes

no one has to know

whisperin'

i wanna feel the soft rope burn wanna feel a rope burn when you walk into the room you knew just what to do you could have gone from door to door but you knew just where to go to come into my velvet room and tell me fantasies

the passion in your voice i wanna hear as you start to tell me while you're at it take the blind fold tie it gently on me don't wanna see but feel the things you're gonna do to me

chorus

one in the mornin'
i'm feelin so free and sensual lyin' here wearin'
just my imagination for you sensation will do can you feel the warmth of the candlelight embrace your body i'm feelin the hot candle wax drippin' down the small of my back (you wanna know what my tongue feels like? hmmm you like that??)
