Hey J

It's been a long time since

I've seen you last

A half and twenty six years

(My time is fast)

I'm well

Though I've gone through

Some deep changes in my life

It hasn't been easy

Oh no not for me

It's been difficult at times

Sometimes I'd sit down and cry

And ask God oh why

(Fair.... what is?)

I know how you're feelin'

Same thing I did deal with

Ya not as alone

As you may feel

You see but oh

It catches up to us fast

We have to deal with our past

I know it's painful but
There you'll find specialness
'Cause everybody needs to feel real special
We need to remember
The love lies deep within ourselves
We have to want it so
It starts with us and no one else
We must learn
We're all born with specialness inside of us
I have the need
To feel real special too
You see you can't run away from your pain
Because wherever you run there you will be
You have to learn to water your spiritual garden
Then you will be free
I know how you're feelin'
Same thing I did deal with
Ya not as alone
As you may feel
You see but oh
It catches up to us fast
We have to deal with our past
I know it's painful but
There you'll find specialness
'Cause everybody needs to feel real special

We need to remember

The love lies deep within ourselves

We have to want it so

It starts with us and no one else

We must learn

We're all born with specialness inside of us

I have the need

To feel real special too
