Love, my love

I regret the day you went away

I was too young to understand my love

But now I understand my mistakes Chorus:

Where, where are you now?

Now that I'm ready to

Ready to love you the way you loved me then

Where are you now?

Do you still think of me?

Or does your heart belong to someone else's Love, Oh my love

Wonder sometimes were you just a dream

I sit in the dark

Wondering if our paths

Will ever cross again

Oh lord I need to know

I sit and wonder

Repeat Chorus

If I close my eyes

And make a wish

When they open will you be right here with me

Repeat Chorus

Could it be that two people were meant to be

In my dreams that's what I feel

Or could it be that I'll never see you again

My love that was so true

Still I sit here waiting all alone

By the phone for you
