Well I was smelling on a daisy I had picked before
By the way things were going I couldn't help but get bored
In this cold dark bedroom, waiting for my eyes to adjust
I couldn't even see her but I knew she was there
It was that very unoften excitement of a woman laid bare
I don't know about the rest of you, but seeing what I'm doing is a plus
So I pulled her closer in and I gently touched her face
Put my mouth to her ear, and in all my grace Whispered a borderline, could be an embarrassing situational phrase

And I said,

Can we do it with the lights on
Oh, we do it so good
Oh, when we do it with the lights on
Oh, we do it so good
'Cause seeing is believing and I'm leaving if you don't think we should

[Chorus:]

Are you down?
Are you down?
No point in hiding anything now,
Your love exposed
And unclothed
So just smile for a while and be proud
Of what you got Take a shot
So just hold me tight and scream it out loud, let me know
Are you down?
Are you down?
Are you down with seeing all of me now?

You need something new Here's what we can do

She started moving like a woman with experienced mind
Body shaking, music making, creating arch in her spine
Pulling in, naked separating skin and I'm in she's taking her time
Everybody needs somebody
Everybody needs somebody
Let the late light shine

When we do it with the lights on
Oh, we do it so good
Oh, when we do it with the lights on
Oh, we do it so good

[Chorus]

Someone light the fuse
I need different views

Can we do it with the lights on
Oh, we do it so good
Oh, when we do it with the lights on
Oh, we do it so good
When you do me with the lights on
You do me so good
Oh, we do it so good

'Cause seeing is believing
And I'm leaving if you don't think we should
