So you say you love her
So you say she loves you too

She calls you names but you pretend you didn't hear her

I hope you open your eyes
Devil in an angel's disguise
She ain't got love
She ain't got love

So you pray she never leaves you
Everyday her words deceive you

She's telling you lies,
And it's making you look like a fool,
Look around and you'll see that I'm telling the truth
She's insane, come on, man,
Look around
Toss it up and leave her down

I hope you open your eyes
Devil in an angel's disguise
She ain't got love
She ain't got love

You know you'd be better off
Some rainy day you'll discover
That isn't rain out there falling at all
It's the blood of a suffering self-esteem
Puddling up at the feet of a fool

[Repeat Chorus]
