Lyrics

I'm standing in the middle of this crossroad
I Didn't know which way to go
I looked to the North and South
The East And The West, because my luck was running out

Bridge

But if I made a choice about which should I way to go
To get confused I don't need that anymore You can't run some life you got to stand there and take it
You got to make a choice and you got to be the one who make it

Chorus

That's why I'm standing in the middle of this crossroad
Trying to figure which way should I go
I can't afford a mistake
Life is something that just won't wait

Lyrics

I went to the North and the people was the same as the South
But then you came alone and get me to work this out
If I had went east, or girl maybe to the West Returning back home to you, maybe worked out for the best

Bridge

Amongst all this confusion I'm glad I met you girl You get ups and down in and outs and crazy things in this world
It's like a fork in the road. There is just too many ways to go
Don't find yourself standing there, or you will find your self

[Backgrounders]

Standing in the middle of this crossroad

And donâ€™t know where to go
Standing in the middle of this crossroad
And donâ€™t know where to go

[Music]

Bridge

And then you came along, and showed me which way to go
I said I was standing, confused
And then you took my hands And made me love you, I was standing in the middle of this crossroad

Chorus

I was standing in the middle of this crossroad
And I didnâ€™t know which way to go
You made my life come true
It would be nothing without you

Ending

I donâ€™t know where to go
I was standing in the middle of the cross
