Time is contagious; choking everyone.
The clock is ticking; an angel's fallen to the ground.
Can't find redemption; only in this love.
But how can you be so close and feel so far away
tonight?

Although it's blinding, follow the light to get to me.

Meet me in the back of the sun.
That's where I'll be.
Meet me in the back of the sun.
I swear I'll be.
(I swear I'll be waiting until we're back together.
Waiting until the end of forever).

My kisses are fading; fading from your cheek.
Now I'm holding on by a string.
Blackout.
Fallen.
Take me to the other side.
The candles are lit on the path we take tonight.

I can't find a way to carry on without you tonight.
