I lay down for you
Lost and lonely in space
I'd go blind for you
You wipe the smile from my face
Crack my spine for you
I think I've been here before
Take my time with you
But now I think I'm replaced

You've got something I want
I've got nothing you need
I've been here before
So many times in the scenery

Here we go again
Hanging on to myself
Here we go again
Standing over this hell
Does it ever end
I know I've been here before
So I won't try and I won't blink
But I know you're gonna push me
Tell me how much can I take

I would die for you
My hands are over my head
Say goodbye to you
I know I'm better off dead
Kill my high for you
I think I've been here before
Take this ride for you
The passenger is on board

You've got something I want
I've got one thing you need
I've been here before
So many times I will never bleed

Here we go again
Hanging on to myself
Here we go again

Standing over this hell
Does it ever end
I know I've been here before
But I won't try and I won't think
But I know you're gonna push me
Tell me how much can I take

I would stop the world
(If I could get you off)
I would stop the world
(If I could push you over)
I would stop the world
(If I could get you off)
In time

Here we go again
Hanging on to myself
Here we go again
Tell me how much can I take now

I would stop the world
(If I could get you off)
(If I could push you over)
(If I could get you off)
In time
In time
