Realize doing that explains head
Been out so long that I must be dead

Black hair, blue lips, white skin
Lovely enough
Blank stare, mood shift,
She's been lonely enough

Silver sheets on a fold-out bed
Every light is glowing red

Drifting away,
And I want her just as darkness fades into the days
Blinding rays,
Crystal Hayes

How can I stay,
When my blood is racing and my thoughts are out of place?
Lost in the maze,
Crystal Hayes

Milky moon leaks balls and lead
Needing me like I'm made of bread

Drifting away,
And I want her just as darkness fades into the days
Blinding rays,
Crystal Hayes

How can I stay,
When my blood is racing and my thoughts are out of place?
Lost in the maze,
Crystal Hayes

Crystal Hayes
