(Jon-John)

You've been in love once before
But never quite like this (no)
And you fall in love more and more
With every single kiss (yeah)

So tell me why do you do the things
That you continue to do
When I'm not the one who hurt you so
I wouldn't cheat on you

It can't keep goin' on
Like the feeling doesn't exist
Or the one you love will be the one you miss

Then you'll dream about love and how it would be
But then you'll wake up to reality to find I'm gone, I'm gone
Then you'll start to think and reminisce
'Coz it's my hugs and kisses you'll miss
But I'm gone, I'm gone

You go through life searching for love
And you're lucky if you find (yeah)
Someone who cares about you so
And will never mislead you (no)

But If you hide the way you feel, why do you carry on?
'Coz I won't stay around to wait on you to make up your mind

It can't keep going on like the feeling doesn't exist
Or the one you love will be the one you miss

Then you'll dream about love and how it would be
But then you'll wake up to reality to find I'm gone, I'm
gone
Then you'll start to think and reminisce
'Coz it's my hugs and kisses you'll miss
But I'm gone, I'm gone

It can't keep going on like the feeling doesn't exist
Or the one you love will be the one you miss

Then you'll dream about love and how it would be
But then you'll wake up to reality to find I'm gone, I'm
gone
Then you'll start to think and reminisce
'Coz it's my hugs and kisses you'll miss
But I'm gone, I'm gone

Then you'll dream about love and how it would be
But then you'll wake up to reality to find I'm gone, I'm
gone
Then you'll start to think and reminisce
'Coz it's my hugs and kisses you'll miss
I'm gone, I'm gone

La la la la la
La la de da

(repeat to end, with chorus in background)
